

Turning design visions into reality

Founded in London in 2009 by Italian architect Marco Braghiroli, Prestige Exclusive Lifestyle specialises in private residential architectural services, bringing together elegance and continental flair in all its projects.

In recent years, Marco has designed and led numerous high-end projects of various sizes and complexity, both in the UK and abroad, including flat and house refurbishments in Chelsea, Knightsbridge, Mayfair and Hampstead; a Swiss chalet refurbishment and extension; and a feasibility study for multiple luxury residences in Abu Dhabi.

"I'm always there sharing experience, knowledge and design direction, but ultimately it's the client's home and they're the main driver of the process and to the destination," says Marco.

Working closely with experienced and reputable industry professionals, Prestige turns

The key to our success is the attention to detail in each and every one of our projects, coupled with a strong commitment to responding to our clients' needs the client's vision into a dynamic design process, ensuring the end result effortlessly matches their needs and aspirations. This approach has achieved continuing client satisfaction, a fact evident from the testimonials of numerous clients. In addition, Prestige has repeatedly been shortlisted for a raft of prestigious international design awards.
